Description:

barth realizes custom-made and turnkey interior furniture of highest quality in different sectors: boutiques and jewelleries, museums, private residences, headquarters, hospitality. The close collaboration and the continuous exchange with the architect / planner are at the center of every project. During execution of the trusted projects barth has at the base of all creations the binomial "craftmanship - innovation". barth works as the architect's "technical arm" accompanying every project step, from the realization of the executive drawings, the choice of materials, from production to professional assembly in the customers' spaces. All projects are managed, organized and coordinated from the headquarters in Bressanone. barth company was founded in 1877 having its roots in artistic carpentry. Today barth is a leading and innovative company in high-quality interiors with worldwide projects and notable references. Always unchanged the values that accompany the activity from the beginning: courage, passion and precision.
